

Business Development Manager Wanted

Deadline for applications: 12:00 noon on 30th April 2018 for interviews on 17th May.

Can you lead a flock to take-off? We're attracting global attention for our work and need someone to help us achieve our high flying ambitions.

Happy City is a charity that puts the wellbeing of current and future generations centre stage. We help people to explore, understand and improve the conditions for people and places to thrive.

We're looking for a Business Development Manager with experience in marketing, sales and excellent customer care to grow our social enterprise. Your commercial edge will increase our impact for good as we serve businesses, communities and public bodies across the UK. You'll fiercely uphold and spread our reputation for high quality tools, training and consultancy services, with the strategic outlook to keep it growing.

You'll be pragmatic about getting things done on tight budgets to attract and delight our clients and partners.

For now, we're able to offer a fixed term 24 month contract at 0.6 FTE (22.5 hours per week). The salary is £30,000 (pro rata) with benefits. The job starts as soon as possible after interviews.

Dive into the full job description here if you think you combine all the skills we need: Business Development Manager Job Description

Happy City is committed to equality, diversity and inclusion. To apply, please write to gareth@happycity.org.uk. Send us your CV with a brief covering letter describing your reasons for applying.

Deadline for applications: 12:00 noon, on 30th April 2018

Happy City will be flying high in 2018 - will you be with us?