

Gifted Communications & Campaigns Manager Wanted

Deadline for applications: 12:00 noon on 30th April 2018 for interviews on 18th of May.

Want to change the tune of national debate with the volume turned up on wellbeing? Do you think we can do better than an economic system that delivers inequality rather than prosperity for everyone?

Happy City is a small charity with a big mission. We challenge the idea that the world has to be about endless consumption and GDP growth, because we think people want something better than that.

This is where we need your communications and campaigning expertise.

We're looking to recruit a Campaigns & Communications Manager. You will be a strategic thinker with excellent communication skills, quick to seize opportunities to convert interest into committed action. You will have a nose for PR, love provoking curiosity and debate, and be used to building relationships and alliances with others. You'll certainly have run some successful campaigns, and whatever your background, you'll have learned what it takes to motivate people and influence decision makers.

If you feel ready to manage the mix, take a look at the full job description here: Communications and campaigns Manager.

We're currently able to offer a p/t flexible fixed term 24 month contract at 4 days per week. The salary is £26-£28,000 pro rata depending on experience. The job starts as soon as possible after interviews.

Happy City is committed to equality, diversity and inclusion. To apply, please write to gareth@happycity.org.uk. Send us your CV with a brief covering letter describing the campaign you're most proud of, and why it was such a success.

Deadline for applications: 12:00 noon, on 30th April 2018

Happy City will be a headline act in 2018 - will you be part of it?